1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the President's views on the secession of the Southern States. The President states that he believes the Southern States have no right to secede from the Union, and that he will use all the power at his disposal to maintain the Union.

2. The second part of the document is a letter from the Vice President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is also a very important document, as it sets out the Vice President's views on the secession of the Southern States. The Vice President states that he believes the Southern States have no right to secede from the Union, and that he will use all the power at his disposal to maintain the Union.
